8. KANSAS DISCLOSURES (if applicable):

Lead-based Paint Notice: The building site improvements have been built long enough ago to contain lead-based paint, but Seller has no knowledge of the lead-based paint and /or lead-based paint hazards in the building sites. Buyer may make whatever inspection they desire to determine if there exists any lead-based paint or hazards on said property(ies) and take whatever action is necessary to remove lead-based paint or hazards at Buyer's expense.

Radon Notice. Every buyer of residential real property is notified that the property may present exposure to dangerous concentrations of indoor radon gas that may place the occupants at risk of developing radon-induced lung cancer. Radon, a class-A human carcinogen, is the leading cause of lung cancer in non-smokers and the second leading cause overall. The Kansas department of health and environment recommends that all home-buyers have an indoor radon test performed prior to purchasing or taking occupancy of residential real property. All testing for radon should be conducted by a radon measurement technician. Elevated radon concentrations can be easily reduced by radon mitigation technician. For additional information, go to www.kansasradonprogram.org.

Registered Offenders Notice. Kansas law requires persons who are convicted of certain crimes, including sexually violent crimes, to register with the sheriff of the county in which they reside. If you, as the buyer, desire information regarding those registrants, you may find information on the homepage of the Kansas Bureau of Investigation (KBI) at <http://www.Kansas.gov/kbi> or by contacting the local sheriff's office.

9. DEFAULT: If Seller is unable to deliver marketable/insurable title, any earnest money shall be returned to Buyer and this agreement shall be of no further force and effect. In the event Buyer fails to make any of the payments or perform any of the covenants contained herein, Seller may declare this agreement null and void and any amounts paid by the Buyer shall be forfeited to Seller as liquidated damages. In the alternative, Seller shall be entitled to pursue such other legal and equitable remedies that may be available to Seller.

10. FORFEITURE OR REFUND OF EARNEST MONEY: Seller and Buyer understand that applicable Kansas real estate laws prohibit the Escrow Agent from distributing the earnest money, once deposited, without the consent of all parties to this agreement. Buyer and Seller agree that failure by either to respond in writing to a certified letter from the Escrow Agent within Seven (7) days of receipt thereof or failure to make written demand for return or forfeiture of an earnest money deposit within thirty (30) days of notice of cancellation of this agreement, shall constitute consent to distribution of the earnest money as suggested in any such certified letter, or as demanded by the other party hereto.

11. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE: Seller and Buyer agree that this agreement constitutes the entire agreement and that there are no unwritten, oral or implied promises, covenants or warranties.

Time is of the essence of this agreement and all payments shall be made promptly and in accordance with the terms hereof and all the covenants and agreements herein contained shall extend to and be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators, successors in interest, and assigns of the respective parties.

The parties acknowledge that either or both may desire to accomplish an IRS Code Section 1031 tax deferred exchange and that each party's rights and obligations under this agreement may be assigned to a third party for the purposes of completing such exchange. Any party desiring to make an IRS Code section 1031 exchange shall be hereinafter referred to as the "electing party."

The parties agree to accept performance from said third party and shall tender performance to said third party and shall cooperate with the electing party and said third party in any manner reasonably necessary or desirable in order to effectuate such exchange, provided however, that the electing party shall be responsible for any additional expense or liability resulting from said party's exchange.

Either party that decides to complete a 1031 exchange agrees to give the other party notice of their intent to do so within a reasonable time prior to the closing date so that the closing date is not delayed.
